RELEVÉ DE SUBVENTIONS

Les subventions octroyés par la Fondation communautaire d'Ottawa tombent dans l'une des deux catégories générales :

Subventions communautaires et stratégiques

Les subventions communautaires et stratégiques, qui sont évaluées par le personnel et/ou le comité de subventions, composent généralement entre 15 à 20 % du total de l'enveloppe annuelle de subventions.

Subventions orientées par le donateur et subventions affectées

Les subventions orientées par le donateur et les subventions affectées sont accordées sous la direction des donateurs.

Toutes les subventions accordées par la Fondation, peu importe la catégorie, doivent être octroyées à un donataire reconnu, tel que défini par l'Agence du revenu du Canada. Ceux-ci sont typiquement des organismes de bienfaisance enregistrés, mais peuvent aussi inclure les municipalités ou les collectivités publiques, les associations de sports amateurs, ou certaines autres organisations. De temps à autre, les subventions sont accordées aux donataires reconnus pour les partenariats caritatifs, dans lesquels le donataire collabore avec un organisme non-DR afin de réaliser sa mission. Ceux-ci sont indiqués ci-dessous avec le nom du Donataire reconnu en premier et le partenaire Le statut de donataire reconnu est le seul critère d'admissibilité demandé pour les subventions orientées par le donataire et affectées. Les subventions communautaires et stratégiques exigent des critères additionnels, qui peuvent varier selon le type de subvention.
